Emma's favourite doll

My name is Betty and I have a little sister called Emma. She has lots of dolls, but her favourite one is called Daisy. Mum and Dad gave it to her when she was a baby and she takes it everywhere with her. She takes it to school and to her bedroom and when we sit down to eat, the doll always sits next to Emma.

Last Sunday, our family went to the park to have a picnic. We took our dog, Treasure, with us and of course, Emma took Daisy too. There were a lot of people in the park because it was sunny. We found a place near the lake to have our picnic. After lunch, Emma and I went on the swings. After a few minutes, Emma said to me, "Betty, I want Daisy on the swing with me. Can you go and get her for me?" "OK!" I answered.

But when I went back to our picnic, Daisy wasn't there. "Mum"! I shouted, "we've lost Daisy!" Dad looked in all the bags and Mum and I looked under our sweaters and other things, but we couldn't find her. I went to tell Emma the bad news, but when I got there, I saw Treasure. He carried Daisy carefully in his mouth. "Look!" said Emma, "Treasure has brought Daisy to play with me. He's very kind."

'This is a zoo, not a circus', says keeper Stan Berry. 'You are not allowed to give food to any of our animals or take photos of them. Some zoos allow children to play with the farm animals, but we don't. But we give children pencil and paper when they come into the zoo so they can make their own pictures if they like.'

The zoo also has The Ark, where you can watch films about the animals. It shows where they come from and how they live in the wild. You must not take food or drink into The Ark, but there is a shop and a café outside.

Single adult tickets are £8 and children's tickets are half price. Or you can buy a family ticket (two adults and four children) for £20. There are also group tickets for parties of 10 plus.
